Risk Assessment Update June 2021

‘Have no fear of moving into the unknown. Simply step out fearlessly knowing that I am with you, therefore no harm can befall you; all is very, very well. Do this in complete faith and confidence’, St John Paul II

‘We are living stones building a cathedral of peace’ St John Paul II

Key Priorities:

- 1) Health, safety and well-being of pupils parents and staff
 - 2) The school being logistically and operational upon full reopening
 - 3) The best and highest quality of education possible for pupils when in school and when learning remotely

This risk assessment is produced following the guidance suggested by Birmingham City Council. Whilst one can never remove all risk, it is intended to identify the necessary key actions, which will reduce risk in line with all key recommendations from the Department for education and Public Health England.

This is an ongoing working tool- as we enter into the new challenges faced by the current Lockdown and variations of the virus. As with all Risk assessments taken during Lockdown it will be reviewed regularly in order to identify any swiftly respond to any issues, which may arise and will be revisited again in preparation for full or partial re-opening.

This risk assessment checklist/tool is based on Government guidelines on COVID-19 It remains subject to change at a short notice as updates are received from the Department for Education (DfE)

Please note that latest additions are in blue and denoted June 21 - the Mass testing element of the RA has been included within this document. All latest feedback and updates follow the recommendations amendments as shared by BCC w/c 7th June 21 and the interim advice offered during the half term (wc 31st May when additional advice was shared in light of new variants.

16. Ensure you have considered the impact on staff and pupils with protected characteristics including race and disability in developing you approach
Considerations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Nationally the ONS analysis has identified an increased risk of death among some ethnic groups, although this increased risk reduces when age, gender and long term conditions like type 2 diabetes, high blood pressure and kidney disease, but doesn't disappear completely and further research is needed to explore this. There doesn't appear to be any difference between ethnic groups in terms of infection rates, i.e. who catches it, the difference is in the proportion who die. In light of this it is important for risk assessments of individuals, staff and pupils, take this into account, the main risks are around health conditions such as diabetes, kidney disease and high blood pressure, especially if poorly controlled and also obesity has been identified as a significant risk factor. The risk of death is also higher in older people over 65yrs and men have a slightly higher rate than women. Those with respiratory conditions like asthma and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease also pose higher risks, along with auto-immune conditions. Smoking can also exacerbate the disease and lead to poorer outcomes The NHS risk assessment suggests BAME individuals have a higher risk at a younger age, so as a rough guide consider a BAME 55yr old's risk in the same way you would consider White 65yrs old, but the biggest risk factor is existing health conditions. Once risks are identified then it would be sensible to work with your occupational health provider on how then to look at adjustments and whether staff can, for the remainder of term, support remote teaching or telephone support roles. This assessment will need to be on a case by case basis. If someone in the household is shielding (part of the 1.5million), the children in that household should not be included in the first wave of students going back to school. Staff may however consider returning if they are able to practice good hand hygiene and follow the national guidelines on living with someone who is shielded. It is less clear-cut for children who are living in households with other vulnerable adults or siblings who are not shielded, however it is worth noting that the risk is less from younger children than older children and can be reduced through good hand hygiene. This however will be a decision that parents will need to make individually based on their personal circumstances.
